The Sign Over Your Door

Is a good thing, isn't it? You would not think of doing business without it.

But it is only seen by those who pass your way.

If you could put a sign where everyone could see it, it would interest you, would it not?

THE DIRECTORY

is where people look for you when they want to do business. You should make it easy for them to find you by putting such information as the buyer wants in the Directory, properly indexed under all the headings where he might look for you.

To be properly registered costs less than to be left out.

INACCURACY

¶A well rated grocery store displayed a card in its window bearing the sign "Hubberson Apples."

¶The apples were unconscious of the error in spelling Hubbardston, but the ignorance of the sign writer made the advertisement a joke instead of a trade maker.

¶When you misspell a customer's name, he or she cannot be as unfeeling as the apples.

¶Keep your trade and prestige by being careful and accurate in details of this kind. Do not commit the offense of misspelling a patron's name.

¶Use the Directory.

"Look that man's address up in the Directory," said the modern high power Executive.

Why?

Because it is an immediate point of contact when you address your customer correctly. Carelessly addressed mail presupposes a carelessly conducted business.

Early History of Directories

¶Many centuries ago, long before we had Directories, it was the custom of persons having goods for sale to stand on the street corner and tell the passers-by of their wares. The stranger looking for his friend searched from house-to-house or in the market place, crying his question until some one answered.

¶Next came the Town Crier who, hired to seek and give information, wandered through the highways and byways ringing his bell and crying "Hear ye, Hear ye" until his mission was completed. With the growth of population this picturesque service became unsatisfactory and expensive and was abandoned for information regarding the community, gathered at stated intervals. And then, with the invention of the printing press, came the publishing of this important data!

CROWLEY & LUNT'S

GREAT BARRINGTON STREET AND HOUSE DIRECTORY

(INCLUDING HOUSATONIC)

Alphabetically and Numerically Arranged

1926—'28

The system for numbering the streets of the town is as follows: Starting at the beginning of a street or avenue the even numbers will be found on the right side and the odd numbers on the left side. The House Directory shows heads of families or persons in business in order of location on each street. Houses without numbers are indicated by a cipher (0), the dash (—) is used to indicate railroad crossings, bridges, etc., also to show the location of street intersections and connections, where numbers for such intersections are not given.

ABBREVIATIONS: Ave., avenue; bldg., building; blk., block; byd., beyond; dept., department; mnfr. or mnfrs., manufacturers; n., near; r., rear; rd., road; rm., room; s. r., summer residence; st., street.

NOTE: This house index or guide is intended to show all the Great Barrington and Housatonic streets and roads, including each country road to the town limits.

FIRST AMERICAN DIRECTORY

¶Benjamin Franklin's name appears in the the first American Directory, which was published in Philadelphia in 1785. This book contained 85 pages with 3570 names.

¶Only four of the New York Directories of 1786 are now in existence, and that they are valued highly because of their historical value is shown by the fact that one sold at auction a few years ago for $2,400.00. In this edition appear the names of Aaron Burr and Alexander Hamilton, side by side. Little did the compiler dream that these two were to meet in deadly combat across from New York, under the shadows of the beautiful Palisades, on the Jersey side of the Hudson river.

¶Three years after the publication of the first New York Directory, Boston came out with her "First Edition," which was in pamphlet form and contained 56 pages. People were not as democratic in those days as they are now, and instead of the names being listed alphabetically the compilers attempted to give the names in accordance to rank and standing in the community. In this little booklet we find the name of our old friend Paul Revere (goldsmith), 50 Cornhill St. Heading his advertisement was a Liberty Bell—the same dashing spirit that led him to be the first to warn "the country people to be up and to arm," made him one of the first to advertise in the City Directory.

FIRST AMERICAN DIRECTORY

¶Benjamin Franklin's name appears in the first American Directory, which was published in Philadelphia in 1785. This book contained 85 pages with 3570 names.

¶Only four of the New York Directories of 1786 are now in existence, and that they are valued highly because of their historical value is shown by the fact that one sold at auction a few years ago for $2,400.00. In this edition appear the names of Aaron Burr and Alexander Hamilton, side by side. Little did the compiler dream that these two were to meet in deadly combat across from New York, under the shadows of the beautiful Palisades, on the Jersey side of the Hudson river.

¶Three years after the publication of the first New York Directory, Boston came out with her "First Edition," which was in pamphlet form and contained 56 pages. People were not as democratic in those days as they are now, and instead of the names being listed alphabetically the compilers attempted to give the names in accordance to rank and standing in the community. In this little booklet we find the name of our old friend Paul Revere (goldsmith), 50 Cornhill St. Heading his advertisement was a Liberty Bell—the same dashing spirit that led him to be the first to warn "the country people to be up and to arm," made him one of the first to advertise in the City Directory.

INACCURACY

¶A well rated grocery store displayed a card in its window bearing the sign "Hubberson Apples."

¶The apples were unconscious of the error in spelling Hubbardston, but the ignorance of the sign writer made the advertisement a joke instead of a trade maker.

¶When you misspell a customer's name, he or she cannot be as unfeeling as the apples.

¶Keep your trade and prestige by being careful and accurate in details of this kind. Do not commit the offense of misspelling a patron's name.
